Fifty-sixth session
Agenda item 173

Observer status for the Community of Sahelo-Saharan States in the General Assembly

Report of the Sixth Committee

Rapporteur: Mr. Mahmoud M. Al-Naman (Saudi Arabia)

I. Introduction

1. The item entitled "Observer status for the Community of Sahelo-Saharan States in the General Assembly" was included in the provisional agenda of the fifty-sixth session of the General Assembly at the request of the Sudan.

2. At its 3rd meeting, on 19 September 2001, the General Assembly, on the recommendation of the General Committee, decided to include the item in its agenda and to allocate it to the Sixth Committee.

3. The Sixth Committee considered the item at its 8th to 10th meetings, on 12, 19 and 26 October 2001. The views of the representatives who spoke during the Committee's consideration of the item are reflected in the relevant summary records (A/C.6/56/SR.8-10).

4. For its consideration of the item, the Committee had before it a letter dated 24 July 2001 from the Permanent Representative of the Sudan to the United Nations addressed to the Secretary-General (A/56/191).

II. Consideration of draft resolution A/C.6/56/L.3

5. At the 8th meeting, on 12 October, the representative of the Sudan, on behalf of Burkina Faso, the Central African Republic, Chad, Djibouti, Egypt, Eritrea, the Gambia, the Libyan Arab Jamahiriya, Mali, Morocco, the Niger, Nigeria, Senegal, Somalia, the Sudan and Tunisia, introduced a draft resolution entitled "Observer status for the Community of Sahelo-Saharan States in the General Assembly" (A/C.6/56/L.3).

6. At its 10th meeting, on 26 October, the Committee adopted draft resolution A/C.6/56/L.3 without a vote (see para. 7).

III. Recommendation of the Sixth Committee

7. The Sixth Committee recommends to the General Assembly the adoption of the following draft resolution:

Observer status for the Community of Sahelo-Saharan States in the General Assembly

The General Assembly,

Considering the importance of the Community of Sahelo-Saharan States, an intergovernmental organization that addresses the common interests of its members and takes account of the diverse links that unite their peoples, and given the determination of the organization to confront the factors that have caused economic backwardness and instability in its member States, its conviction that joint action in a framework of complementarity is the best way to integrate its countries and peoples, its commitment to the maintenance of international peace and security in the Sahelo-Saharan region and its determination to satisfy the wish for economic, cultural, political and social integration in accordance with the Charter of the United Nations, the Charter of the Organization of African Unity, the Charter of the Organization of the Islamic Conference, the 1991 Treaty establishing the African Economic Community (the Abuja Treaty) and the constitutive documents of the regional organizations to which its member States belong,

Considering also the need, frequently noted by the United Nations, to promote and support every effort towards the development of bilateral and multilateral cooperation on the basis of international law,

Noting that the Treaty establishing the Community of Sahelo-Saharan States stresses regional cooperation as part of the process of achieving African unity on the basis of human rights and fundamental freedoms and the promotion of social justice and stability,

Wishing to promote cooperation between the United Nations and the Community of Sahelo-Saharan States,

1. Decides to invite the Community of Sahelo-Saharan States to participate in the sessions and the work of the General Assembly in the capacity of observer;

2. Requests the Secretary-General to take the necessary action to implement the present resolution.

International convention against the reproductive cloning of human beings

Report of the Sixth Committee

Rapporteur: Mr. Mahmoud Mohmed Al-Naman (Saudi Arabia)

I. Introduction

1. The item entitled "International convention against the reproductive cloning of human beings" was included in the provisional agenda of the fifty-sixth session of the General Assembly at the request of France and Germany.

2. At its 3rd meeting, on 19 September 2001, the General Assembly, on the recommendation of the General Committee, decided to include the item in its agenda and to allocate it to the Sixth Committee.

3. The Sixth Committee considered the item at its 27th meeting, on 19 November. The views of the representatives who spoke during the Committee's consideration of the item are reflected in the relevant summary record (A/C.6/56/SR.27).

4. For its consideration of the item, the Committee had before it a letter dated 7 August 2001 from the Chargés d'affaires a.i. of the Permanent Missions of France and Germany to the United Nations addressed to the Secretary-General (A/56/192).

II. Consideration of draft resolution A/C.6/56/L.19

5. At the 27th meeting, on 19 November, the representative of France, on behalf of Algeria, Andorra, Austria, Azerbaijan, Bangladesh, Belgium, Brazil, Bulgaria, Canada, China, Costa Rica, Croatia, Denmark, Finland, Germany, Greece, Honduras, Hungary, Ireland, Italy, Jordan, Liechtenstein, Lithuania, Luxembourg, Malta, Monaco, Morocco, the Netherlands, Norway, Poland, Portugal, the Republic of Korea, Romania, the Russian Federation, San Marino, Sierra Leone, Slovakia, Slovenia, Spain, Sweden, Tunisia, the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland and Yugoslavia, subsequently joined by Cuba, Haiti, Nigeria, Peru,

01-65905 (E) 271101

The former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia and Uganda, introduced a draft resolution entitled "International convention against the reproductive cloning of human beings" (A/C.6/56/L.19).

6. At the same meeting, the Secretary of the Committee made a statement regarding the financial implications of the draft resolution (A/C.6/56/SR.27).

7. Also at the same meeting, the Committee adopted draft resolution A/C.6/56/L.19 without a vote (see para. 8).

III. Recommendation of the Sixth Committee

8. The Sixth Committee recommends to the General Assembly the adoption of the following draft resolution:

International convention against the reproductive cloning of human beings

The General Assembly,

Recalling the Universal Declaration on the Human Genome and Human Rights,[1] adopted by the General Conference of the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization in 1997, and in particular article 11 thereof, in which the Conference specified that practices which are contrary to human dignity such as reproductive cloning of human beings shall not be permitted and invited States and international organizations to cooperate in taking, at the national or international level, the measures necessary in that regard,

Recalling also its resolution 53/152 of 9 December 1998, by which it endorsed the Universal Declaration on the Human Genome and Human Rights,

Bearing in mind Commission on Human Rights resolution 2001/71 of 25 April 2001, entitled "Human rights and bioethics",[2] adopted at the fifty-seventh session of the Commission,

Noting the resolution on bioethics adopted on 2 November 2001 by the General Conference of the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization, in which the Conference approved the recommendations by the Intergovernmental Bioethics Committee towards the possible elaboration, within the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization, of universal norms on bioethics,

Aware that the rapid development of the life sciences opens up tremendous prospects for the improvement of the health of individuals and mankind as a whole, but also that certain practices pose potential dangers to the integrity and dignity of the individual,

[2] See Official Records of the Economic and Social Council, 2001, Supplement No. 3 (E/2001/23), chap. II, sect. A.

Particularly concerned, in the context of practices which are contrary to human dignity, about recently disclosed information on the research being conducted with a view to the reproductive cloning of human beings,

Determined to prevent such an attack on the human dignity of the individual,

Aware of the need for a multidisciplinary approach to the elaboration, by the international community, of an appropriate response to this problem,

1. Decides to establish an Ad Hoc Committee, open to all States Members of the United Nations or members of specialized agencies or of the International Atomic Energy Agency, for the purpose of considering the elaboration of an international convention against the reproductive cloning of human beings;

2. Requests the Secretary-General to invite the specialized agencies of the United Nations system that work in and have substantial interest in the field of bioethics, including, in particular, the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization and the World Health Organization, to participate as observers in the work of the Ad Hoc Committee;

3. Decides that the Ad Hoc Committee will meet from 25 February to 1 March 2002 to consider the elaboration of a mandate for the negotiation of such an international convention, including, inter alia, a list of the existing international instruments to be taken into consideration and a list of legal issues to be addressed in the convention, with the understanding that the Ad Hoc Committee will open with an exchange of information and technical assessments provided by experts on genetics and bioethics, and recommends that the work continue during the fifty-seventh session of the General Assembly from 23 to 27 September 2002 in the framework of a working group of the Sixth Committee;

4. Requests the Secretary-General to provide the Ad Hoc Committee with the necessary facilities for the performance of its work;

5. Requests the Ad Hoc Committee to report on its work to the General Assembly at its fifty-seventh session;

6. Recommends that, upon the adoption of a negotiation mandate by the General Assembly, it may decide, taking into account the acute nature of the problem, to reconvene the Ad Hoc Committee, in order to open negotiations on the international convention referred to in paragraph 1 above;

7. Decides to include in the provisional agenda of its fifty-seventh session the item entitled "International convention against the reproductive cloning of human beings".

Fifty-sixth session
Agenda item 176

Observer status for Partners in Population and Development in the General Assembly

Report of the Sixth Committee

Rapporteur: Mr. Mahmoud Mohmed Al-Naman (Saudi Arabia)

I. Introduction

1. The item entitled "Observer status for Partners in Population and Development in the General Assembly" was included in the provisional agenda of the fifty-sixth session of the General Assembly at the request of the States members of Partners in Population and Development (Bangladesh, China, Colombia, Egypt, the Gambia, India, Indonesia, Kenya, Mali, Mexico, Morocco, Pakistan, Tunisia, Uganda and Zimbabwe).

2. At its 3rd plenary meeting, on 19 September 2001, the General Assembly, on the recommendation of the General Committee, decided to include the item in its agenda and to allocate it to the Sixth Committee.

3. The Sixth Committee considered the item at its 9th, 10th and 27th meetings, on 19 and 26 October and on 19 November 2001. The views of the representatives who spoke during the Committee's consideration of the item are reflected in the relevant summary records (A/C.6/56/SR.9, 10 and 27).

4. For its consideration of the item, the Committee had before it a letter dated 24 April 2001 from the representatives of Bangladesh, China, Colombia, Egypt, the Gambia, India, Indonesia, Kenya, Mali, Mexico, Morocco, Pakistan, Tunisia, Uganda and Zimbabwe to the United Nations addressed to the Secretary-General (A/55/241).

II. Consideration of proposals

5. At the 9th meeting, on 19 October, the representative of Bangladesh, on behalf of Bangladesh, China, Colombia, India, Indonesia, Kenya, Mali, Mexico, Morocco, Pakistan, Tunisia and Uganda, subsequently joined by Thailand, introduced a draft resolution entitled "Observer status for Partners in Population and Development in the General Assembly" (A/C.6/56/L.4 and Corr. 1), which read:

"The General Assembly,

"Considering the importance of the work of Partners in Population and Development,

"Taking into account the importance of greater interaction between Partners and member States and relevant United Nations bodies, programmes and agencies in the area of population and development,

"Wishing to promote cooperation between the United Nations and Partners in Population and Development,

"1. Decides to invite Partners in Population and Development to participate in the sessions and the work of the General Assembly in the capacity of observer;

"2. Requests the Secretary-General to take the necessary action to implement the present resolution."

6. At the 27th meeting, on 19 November, the Chairman of the Committee introduced a draft decision prepared by the Bureau (A/C.6/56/L.23) in place of draft resolution A/C.6/56/L.4 and Corr.1. The representative of Bangladesh supported the draft decision.

7. At the same meeting, the Committee adopted draft decision A/C.6/56/L.23 without a vote (see para. 8).

III. Recommendation of the Sixth Committee

8. The Sixth Committee recommends to the General Assembly the adoption of the following draft decision:

Observer status for Partners in Population and Development in the General Assembly

The General Assembly decides to defer further consideration of and a decision on the request for observer status for Partners in Population and Development in the General Assembly[1] to its fifty-seventh session.
